

MARIA VOMMARO

PARALEGAL

T 514.375.2672
F 514.905.2001
MVommaro@lcm.ca

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Civil and commercial litigation	Governance, regulatory compliance and administrative investigations
Class actions	Construction law
Shareholder disputes and directors and officers' liability	Calls for tender
Injunctions, seizures and special procedures	Arbitration and dispute resolution
Securities law and financial services	Access to information
Real estate and commercial leasing	Competition law
	Product liability

BIOGRAPHY

Maria Vommaro is a litigation paralegal. She assists lawyers in several fields of law, including class actions, complex litigation matters, seizures and injunctions.

Ms. Vommaro assists lawyers by organizing and managing litigation files and compiling information from a variety of sources. She is skilled at using various types of litigation support technology. Ms. Vommaro has extensive experience in legal research, including consulting government databases, and participates in drafting, serving and filing proceedings. She systematically prepares, manages and updates proceedings, exhibits and undertakings. She also prepares evidence and gathers the necessary information for the preparation of witnesses for trial.

EDUCATION

D.E.C. (Paralegal Technology), O'Sullivan
College of Montreal, 1998

D.E.C. (Social Science with Mathematics),
Dawson College, 1993

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

National Federation of Paralegals Associations

Canadian Association of Paralegals